Conditions

The Study Active Certificate can be requested if you satisfy the following conditions:

- You have to be a member or former member of the study association Commotie.
- You have to receive a minimum of 25 points.
- You have to receive points at least from category 1 or 2.
- If you participated in two committees at the same time, you will receive points for both the committees.
- If you quit early in a committee or the board, you will not receive any points.
- If you are not an active member for a whole academic year, you will not receive any points.
- For attendance at an activity that you have organized yourself or with your committee, you will not receive any points.
- Board members will not receive any points for the activities they attended during their board year.
- You have to request the Study Active Certificate by your own and in writing at the current board of study association Commotie via an email to: bestuur@svcommotie.nl. In this email, you have to mention in which year and how many points you have received.

Optional:

- You can mention the function you had in a certain committee. This can be attached to the certificate.

The board will handle the request as soon as possible and approve the received points. When a minimum of 25 points is reached and you satisfy the conditions, a Study Active Certificate will be rewarded. In some cases, there can be consulted about the number of points. The board always has the last word.

The certificate is signed by the current chairman of the board of Commotie and the Programme Coordinator of the study Communication- and Information Studies.
